- 1) List of Churches by Size (attached).
- 2) Some outlets for publicizing the Youth and Children's Director Job Description.
  - A. Definitely publicize at the local seminaries: Fuller NW, Seattle U, Regent College in Vancouver B.C. Also, consider SPU and Northwest College for non-ordained positions. And UPC has a job board that many college students from UW look at on a regular basis.
  - B. A website that lots of youth workers access is www.youthspecialties.com If you're willing to pay for an ad, you could advertise in Presbyterians Today and Presbyterian Outlook.
  - C. You should connect with Rev. Doug Ranney who coordinates the Seattle Presbytery Youth Directors network: (425) 827-4649, or doug@rosehillpc.org He can make sure and spread the word around the Seattle Area.
  - D. When you get a Job Description you should send it to Ken Sunoo 206-762-1991 x 5 or ken@presbytery.org and ask him to publicize it on Seattle Presbytery Spirit-Net, N. Puget Sound Presbytery, and Olympia Presbytery. That should help cover the Presbyterians around Puget Sound.
  - E. Of course the best way is word of mouth. One possible networking event could be the Ascent Conference coming up May 21-24 at University PC. It's for University age student ministries, but might have some HS/Youth folk involved as well. Here's info:

Ascent is a community-building, fellowship and networking event hosted by University Ministries. Ascent is open to pastors, student leaders and lay leaders who participate in church-based ministry with college-age individuals. Hosts are also needed for conference attendees who will be coming from all over the U.S.! For more info or to be added to the Ascent mailing list please e-mail Ryan Church, Ascent coordinator, or call 206/524-7301, ext. 134. Talks from Ascent 2002 are available online. To listen click here.
